Cariappa Told No Job For Him

ENLISTMENT PLEA IN VAIN

"The Times of India" News Service

BANGALORE, October 31: An application from Gen. K. M. Cariappa, a former Commander-in-Chief of the Indian Army, for "any job" has not been entertained by a local defence recruiting officer.

Narrating this experience, Gen. Cariappa said here today that the recruiting officer had told him: "Sir, my orders are that I cannot take anybody over 50 years of age."

Gen. Cariappa, who was addressing the Mysore regional branch of the Indian Institute of Public Administration, said he had approached the recruiting officer in desperation. In the past 12 days he had sent two telegrams (obviously to the Prime Minister) offering his services, but there had been no response.

'NO POST MORTEM'

The former Army chief favoured the recall of "our very efficient officers and forces" deployed abroad under U.N. assignments to reinforce the troops on the border.

He said that the Plan and the defence needs must be vigorously pursued. Anybody who was disloyal to the country should be "strangled" and blackmarketeers should be "hanged."

He said that China's designs on India were known a few years ago, but he was not prepared to perform a post-mortem as to who was responsible for the present situation. This was the time for everyone to back the Government's measures to repel the aggressor

CONGRATULATIONS are due to the Golden Jubilee Committee for their arrangement of the programme, the catering, the smooth functioning of the evening and the transformation of the hall into a tastefully-decorated setting.

PRESIDENT TOM complet[illegible]d a big day—tree-planting in the morning, civic reception in the afternoon and dinner at night — by receiving a specially-embossed copy of the night's programme as a presentation from the Club.

A similar presentation was made to the General as a memento of his visit to Sale.

NEXT WEEK'S Speaker will be Terry Halbert from the R.A.A.F. Meteorological Section. Terry is a Weather Officer of the Department of the Interior and will speak on "Weather Forecastiing." Bob Wright will do the honours as Chairman for the evening.

EXCERP from Melbourne Bulletin, quoting Speaker, President Bert Coates:

MIX: Don't subside into a regular group and meet the same few men each week. Thus we learn to appreciate facets of our Rotary friends.

ATTENDANCE: Put your job first, but arrive! This luncheon is a privilege for us all. How, sometimes, we arrive jaded to go away refreshed.

Our Rotary movement is a wonderful one. It is a force for good in the community and in the world at large.

GENERAL CARIAPPA'S MESSAGE of peace and friendship between nations exemplified the spirit of Rotary International in this Golden Jubilee year.

Outlining the history of India, its struggle for self rule and the problems and achievements since becoming a Republic, His Excellency brought everyone present to a greater awareness of their obligations as friends and neighbours.

A fluent, cultured and sincere address of ninety minutes held the listeners' attention throughout, and fully deserved of the high praise accorded by Rex in his vote of thanks. Bob Rolland's response (as senior Gippsland Rotarian) to the toast of Rotary International reminds us how time flies. What were you doing twenty-five years ago?. At Rotary, Sale, in the 1930/31 year, Bob Rolland was president, Harry Lacey, secretary. and Victor Trood, Sergeont-at-Arms.

ATTENDANCE of 43 out of 44 gave us the possible. The only absentee, John Leslie, was with us in the spirit as shown in his cablegram from the Iberia. The previous week was 42/44, including a make-up by Lin Jorgensen.

GUESTS present were too numerous to mention, there being almost a hundred. Clarrie Reynolds from Orbost was the only visiting Rotarian. Clarrie was accompanied by his wife and accorded a welcome by President Tom.
